CEF is a Bible centered, worldwide organization, composed of born again believers whose purpose is to evangelize boys and girls with the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ and to establish (disciple) them in the Word of God and in a local church for Christian living. The state office helps to coordinate activities among the various chapters that exist in the State of Maine. They also operate a full summer program of camping at Camp Good News at East Livermore. They offer training for those who are interested in teaching children and also train those who lead their Good News Clubs (weekly neighborhood children's clubs). They offer a training program (Christian Youth In Action) for teens interested in teaching children. John Romano is the State Director of Maine and State Coordinators Melanie Mulherin and Vernelle Fast assist him. Larry and Debbie Porter are the Southern Maine directors for CEF. They previously worked for CEF in Haiti.

First EFC of Maine has supported the CEF state and southern Maine offices for many years.
