TEAM Radio China was founded in 1951 by 2 TEAM missionaries. The programming is in the Mandarin dialect of Chinese. In 1979, the government of China began to allow the Chinese increased contact with the outside world and TEAM Radio China now receives 20,000 letters a year from listeners in China. Team Radio tailors its programming according to the requests presented in these letters from listeners. Currently, Christians in China are requesting training to equip them to carry out personal evangelism and strengthen the church. Bible courses and seminary courses have been taught over the air in an attempt to meet these needs. In 1992, TEAM Radio China and Far East Broadcasting Company Taiwan formed a partnership under the name of the Far East Evangelistic Association that combined the efforts of these two organizations, increasing the effectiveness of the ministry. The ministry of TEAM Radio China is primarily “nationalized”. A few missionaries serve on the board of directors along with their Taiwanese brothers and sister. Their radio program focus both on evangelism and on training for lay people and clergy in the Chinese church. They also publish a newsletter called the “China Broadcast”.
